Synopsis

In the heart of Brussels, in the former disused headquarters of the Solvay company - a building doomed to destruction - artist Denis Meyers seeks to make a fresh start of a painful break-up. During 18 months, alone in this huge maze, he painted the walls, doors, windows, cellars, roofs ... with drawings and texts from twenty years of private diaries. As he reached a turning point in his sentimental and artistic life, Denis Meyers seeks to forget about his past life with the hope of a new start.
