Synopsis

Alice, 35 years old. She is Belgian and black. Independent and vulnerable. Journalist for the psychology section of a fashion magazine. Sitting between two worlds in the country of fake. Her to do list: to deliver a urine sample to the lab, to interview Johnny Hallyday, to pick up her daughter at the train station, avoiding 12 calls from her mother... Alice is a good juggler but there are too many skittles and suddenly, she falls: she missed Lila when she got off the train. Fortunately, there's light at the end of the tunnel... How an adverse event can put you back on the right...
