

HOLY LANDS

based on the novel "Holy Lands" (Editions Stock)

Drama

100 min. – Color – 2.39 (DCP Scope) – 5.1 - DCP

Simple English

Released in France: 01/16/2019

AMANDA STHERS

Synopsis

Facing a crossroads in life, Harry Rosenmerck (Academy award nominee James Caan) leaves New York and his family with an unlikely plan to start a pig farm in Nazareth, causing the anger of neighboring local communities. His conflict with the town Rabbi, Moshe Cattan (BAFTA award winner Tom Hollander) slowly turns into a friendship that leads him to reevaluate his relationship with his estranged family, including his difficult ex-wife, 34-year-old student daughter, and playwrighting son David. HOLY LANDS is an emotional, humorous and dramatic story about the passage of time and the...

Cast

Harry Rosenmerck	James Caan
Moshe Cattan	Tom Hollander
David	Jonathan Rhys Meyers
Annabelle	Efrat Dor
Monica	Rosanna Arquette
Michel	Patrick Bruel

Crew

Director of photography	Régis Blondeau - A. F. C.
Sound recordist	Eddy Laurent
Production designer	Françoise Joset
Costume designer	Charlotte Betaillole
Picture editor	Nadia Ben Rachid
Sound editor	Boris Chapelle
Sound mixer	Vincent Cosson
Composer	Grégoire Hetzel

Partners

Taxshelter.be, ING, Canal +, Ciné +, C8 Films

(Co-)Executive production companies

PM SA
Studio Canal

Co-production companies

Artémis Productions
Shelter Prod

International sales

Studio Canal

Distribution

France: Studio Canal